Ctrip Announces Shareholder Resolutions Adopted at 2007 Annual General Meeting

Shanghai, China, June 15, 2007, Ctrip.com International, Ltd. (Nasdaq: CTRP), a leading travel service provider of hotel accommodations, airline tickets and packaged tours in China, announced shareholder resolutions adopted at its annual general meeting of shareholders held in Shanghai today.

Ctrip's shareholders approved the following resolutions proposed by the Company:

1. Distribution of 30% of the Company's net income for 2007 (as determined in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the United States and reported in the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ending December 31, 2007) to the shareholders of the Company as dividends, subject to determination of the record date by Ctrip's Board of Directors.
2. Adoption of the Company's 2007 Share Incentive Plan, under which, subject to other provisions of the plan, the maximum aggregate number of Shares (capitalized terms herein will have the meanings defined in the plan unless stated otherwise) which may be issued pursuant to all Awards (including Incentive Share Options) is one (1) million Shares as of the first business day of 2007, plus an annual increase of one (1) million Shares to be added on the first business day of each calendar year beginning in 2008.

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements are made under the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as "will," "expect," "anticipate," "future," "intend," "plan," "believe" "estimate," and "confident" and similar statements. Among other things, quotations from management and Business Outlook section in this press release, as well as Ctrip's strategic and operational plans, contain forward-looking statements. Ctrip may also make written or oral forward-looking statements in its periodic reports to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 20-F and 6-K, etc., in its annual report to shareholders, in press releases and other written materials and in oral statements made by its officers, directors or employees to third parties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about Ctrip's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, a slow-down of economic growth, declines or disruptions in the travel industry, volatility in the trading price of Ctrip's ADSs, Ctrip's reliance on the relationships with travel suppliers and strategic alliances, failure to further increase brand recognition to obtain new business partners and consumers, failure to attract, train and retain key individuals and employees, failure to compete against new and existing competitors, Ctrip's limited operating history, fluctuations in quarterly operating results, damage to infrastructure and technology, loss of services of key executives, PRC laws and regulations governing internet content providers in China and other risks outlined in Ctrip's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including its annual report on Form 20-F and other filings. Ctrip does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, except as required under applicable law.
