Exhibit No.	Description
99.1	Press release regarding Ctrip's US$300 million share repurchase plan

Ctrip Announces Up to US$300 Million Share Repurchase Program

Shanghai, China, June 13, 2012—Ctrip.com International, Ltd. (Nasdaq: CTRP) (“Ctrip” or the “Company”), a leading travel service provider of hotel accommodations, airline tickets, packaged tours and corporate travel management in China, today announced that the board of the Company has approved a new share repurchase program whereby Ctrip may purchase its own American depository shares (“ADSs”) with an aggregate value of up to US$300 million. The Company expects to fund the repurchase out of its existing cash balance, including cash dividends that it receives from its PRC subsidiaries. The dividends paid by the Company’s PRC subsidiaries to the Company through its Hong Kong subsidiary will be subject to a 5% PRC withholding tax amounting up to US$15 million, which will decrease the Company’s diluted consolidated earnings per ADS by about US$0.10 for the quarter affected. Impact of the PRC withholding tax will be reflected in the Company’s 2012 second quarter financial results. The proposed share repurchase may be effected on the open market at prevailing market prices and/or in negotiated transactions off the market from time to time as market conditions warrant in accordance with applicable requirements of Rule 10b5-1 and/or Rule 10b-18 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Safe Harbor Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements. These statements are made under the “safe harbor” provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “future,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “estimate,” “is/are likely to,” “confident” or other similar statements. Ctrip may also make written or oral forward-looking statements in its periodic reports to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Forms 20-F and 6-K, etc., in its annual report to shareholders, in press releases and other written materials and in oral statements made by its officers, directors or employees to third parties. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about Ctrip’s beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the slow-down of economic growth in China and the global economic downturn, general declines or disruptions in the travel industry, volatility in the trading price of Ctrip’s ADSs, Ctrip’s reliance on its relationships and contractual arrangements with travel suppliers and strategic alliances, failure to further increase Ctrip’s brand recognition to obtain new business partners and consumers, failure to compete against new and existing competitors, failure to successfully manage current growth and potential future growth, risks associated with any strategic investments or acquisitions, seasonality in the travel industry in mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau or Taiwan, failure to successfully develop Ctrip’s corporate travel business, damage to or failure of Ctrip’s infrastructure and technology, loss of services of Ctrip’s key executives, inflation in China and in other countries, risks and uncertainties associated with PRC laws and regulations with respect to the ownership structure of Ctrip’s affiliated Chinese entities and the contractual arrangements among Ctrip, its affiliated Chinese entities and their shareholders, and other risks outlined in Ctrip’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including its annual report on Form 20-F and other filings. All information provided in this press release and in the attachments is as of the date of the issuance, and Ctrip does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, except as required under applicable law.
